

See What Your Money Can Do

Here are a few examples of what your money can do for Greater Cleveland in each payroll deduction period:

$1 will supply the Cleveland Animal Protective League with 5 syringes/needles for anesthesia for a spay/neuter surgery

$2 supplies paint for a graffiti removal sweep in the neighborhood at Slavic Village Development

$4 purchases meals for a month for a disabled adult at Cogswell Hall

$10 provides a family in need of food assistance with fresh, healthy, locally and sustainably grown produce for 20 weeks during the growing season through New Agrarian Center

$30 provides Domestic Violence & Child Advocacy Center with gas for the shelter van to take clients to important meetings such as doctor appointments

$40 provides job readiness training for a consumer to enter the work force through Linking Employment, Abilities, and Potential (LEAP)

$50 allows the Housing Research & Advocacy Center

to contract a tester to investigate a complaint of housing discrimination at a rental property

$80 will give 5 children a snugly bed at Providence House

Near West Theatre

When I first came to NWT, I was 15 years old...I had no sense of identity. Because of other problems in my life, I was very depressed. I had low self-esteem and I forced myself into situations that were not safe for me. At NWT, I always feel safe and loved...they helped me to look at life for more than what was in my neighborhood. They instilled hope in me that I was unsure would come back. They helped me to believe that I'm special; that I matter. They inspired me to follow this deep passion I have for the theatre arts. I am now 20 years old, going to school in the city I love (New York), pursuing what I love to do.

Neighborhood Housing Services of Greater Cleveland

Mersaidies, a working mother of two, had a dream of a family home. She was one of the 240 families receiving down-payment assistance, homebuyer education, and a new home in Cleveland through the work of Neighborhood Housing Services of Greater Cleveland. Mersaidies moved into her new home in Cleveland in 2013. This year she'll be graduating from Lakeland College with her nursing degree while being employed with University Hospitals.

It's beyond exciting! It's a lot of responsibility but it is part of my dream for my family...it's stability. I am excited to paint, garden, and have my family over.
